THE LITTLE BOY THAT DIED.

BY DR. CHALMERS.

I am all alone in my chamber now,
And the midnight hour is near;
And the faggot's crack, and the clock's dull tick,
Are the only sounds I hear;
And o'er my soul, in its solitude,
Sweet feelings of sadness glide:
For my heart and my eyes are full, when I think
Of the little boy that died.

I went one night to my father's house—
Went home to the dear ones all—
And softly I opened the garden gate,
And softly the door of the hall:
My mother came out to meet her son—
She kissed me, and then she sighed;
For her head fell on my neck, and she wept
For the little boy that died.

I shall miss him when the flowers come,
In the garden where he played!
I shall miss him more by the fireside,
When the flowers are all decayed!
I shall see his toys and his empty chair,
And the horse he used to ride;
And they will speak, with a silent speech,
Of the little boy that died.

We shall go home to "Our Father's house"—
To "Our Father's house" in the skies—
Where the hopes of our souls shall have no blight,
Our love and no broken ties;
We shall roam on the banks of the river of peace,
And bathe in its blissful tide;
And one of the joys of our Heaven shall be
The little boy that died.

OUR NATIVE LAND.

Home of our birth! our dear native land,
Thy glories stretch from sea to sea—
From ocean, lake to tropic strand—
Land of the fearless and the free!

From where the western Golden Gate
Gleams ruddy in the sunset ray,
To where the stern Atlantic chain
Looks proudly on the rising day—

From far Niagara's deluge wild
To Florida's perenial flowers—
Ne'er hath the sun of heaven smiled
On such a heritage as ours!

"God and the Union!" This our creed
Our motto this, forever be;
So shall our starry banner float
Forever o'er the brave and free!

MISCELLANY.

DEATH FROM HANGING.—Hanging, although undoubtedly an awkward position, is, nevertheless, the easiest mode of taking life. A writer in one of the English quarterlies proves it to be quite a pleasing operation. He says: "An acquaintance of Lord Bacon, who meant to hang himself only partially, lost his footing, and was cut down at the last extremity, having nearly paid for his curiosity with his life. He declared he felt no pain, and his only sensation was of fire before his eyes, which changed first to black and then to sky-blue. These colors are even a source of pleasure. A Capt. Montagnac, who was hanged in France during the religious wars, and rescued from the gibbet, at the intercession of Viscount Turanne, complained that having lost all pain in an instant, he had been taken from a light, of which the charm defied description. Another criminal, who escaped by breaking of the cord, said that, after a second of suffering, a fire appeared, and across it the most beautiful avenue of trees.

Henry IV., of France, sent his physician to question him, and when mention was made of a pardon, the man replied that it was not worth the asking. The uniformity of the descriptions render it useless to multiply the instances; they fill pages in every book of medical jurisprudence. All agree that the uneasiness is quite momentary—that a pleasurable feeling immediately succeeds—that colors of various hues start up before the sight and that having been gazed on for a trivial space, the rest is oblivion. The mind, averted from the reality of the situation, is engaged in scenes the most remote from that which fill the eye of the spectator—the vile rabble, the hideous gallows, and the struggling form that swings in the wind.

FASHIONS.—According to the Boston Bee, flounces are going to be immensely popular this season among the fair sex.—You will hardly be able to distinguish the embonpoint of one of our lady friends, from the meagreness of the other, for the great wilderness of flounces that cover all physical differences. Billows of silk will seem to roll up from the feet towards the head, threatening to engulph the delicate wearer. We shall see in the streets, since hoops are still in the fashion, nothing but huge cones of dry goods in locomotion, from the vast circumference of which, at the bottom, will peep out two tiny gaiter boots, and on the apex of which, at the top, will be suspended a boquet, in a small lace basket, christened a bonnet, the interval being crowded with striped flounces like gigantic wrinkles on a zebra.

AN EFFICIENT REMEDY.—Mrs. Partington, in reply to a letter enclosing some of the beautifully prepared "Fountain's Cream of Wild Flowers," (the Balm of a Thousand Flowers in a solid form) as a present to her venerable ladyship, says that "she was almost destorted with its flagrant smell and medicinal qualities; and shall preserve it as piece of affection for an antic friend." She says it is delicious "for putrifying an affluviant mouth, and that it is really salubrious for the abolition of babies," for when she washed Isaac it "made a most magnificient soap subs, and he smelt as infirmary as a bucket of posies!" The old lady is oblivious in her expressions, but she means well, and speaks truly of this admirable improvement upon toilet soap.

Many kind mothers at the East are grown so affectionate that they give their children chloroform before whipping them.

Respect old Age.

There, give him the path. Tread slowly and reverently in his presence. Hush that rude laughter; check that little jest. See you not upon upon his temples the snows of many winters? See you not the sunken eye, the bowed form, the thin hand upon whose surface the blue veins stand out like cords? Gone are the beauty and the strength of manhood; and in that faded eye but little light is left, save that of love and kindness. That voice has lost its music, save that soft, undertone of affection.

Sit down, young friend, and hear that story of the olden time; and if, in looking backwards into the mists of the past, he sometimes forgets—sometimes confounds dates, and incidents, or tells the same old tale for the twentieth time, think over what a vast, vast field his laboring memory wanders. Think, over what a checkered web of events, thought takes her beaten track, down into the depth of years. Oh, the joys and sorrows, the hopes and disappointments, the anxieties, and wrongs, and sufferings he rouses from their dreamy beds, as he fights life's "battles o'er again."

"And scenes long lost, of joy and pain,
Come wildering o'er his aged brain."

Standing on the boundary line between life and the untried future, his feet would fain turn backward into the paths of the past. One moment he longs for rest—the next come back the mocking memories of departed joys. The thorns have dropped silently away amidst the leaves of the roses he gathered in childhood and youth—their beauty and fragrance alone remain.

Oh, you in whose bounding veins young life yet lingers; and you in the full vigor of manhood, respect the aged! Speak gently, hush the rude laugh, check the idle jest, listen to the wisdom which is the voice of experience. Cheer him with kind words; encircle him with your strong arm, and lead him as he descends the western hill of life, the shadows deepening into night—the white hairs upon his temple already drifting in the cool breeze which comes up from the valley of death.

Honor the aged, that he may leave you his blessing on the threshold of the unknown land. Honor him, and God will raise up for you friends to remove the thorns from the last league of your own life-journey; for the sake of the weary one of the long ago, who never wept for your ingratitude; whose bowed form never struggled with a weight of care or grief which you might have carried, while you walked carelessly along, intent upon your own ease and pleasure.

Honor the aged, for His sake who was old before the world was—whose life is from everlasting to everlasting.

Honor him that feebly walketh
With his staff—the white haired sage.
God will curse the wretch that mocketh
Hoary hairs, with slighted age.

☞ MR. K. Q. PHILANDER DOESTICKS, that keen observer and clever caricaturist, holds forth weekly in the New York ——— We fear that he thinks there is more "Garroting" in the newspapers than in the streets; for he gives two or three "cases" that would hardly bear the cross-examination of our friend, Counsellor James T. Brady. As for example.—Knickerbocker.

"Pigford, my esteemed friend and fellow-boarder at Mrs. Snagley's, has been garroted; and it really seems as if the robbers must have intimately known his private affairs, because the event occurred on the night of the very day that he received a remittance from England to pay Mrs. Snagley his five months' board; he appeared at breakfest-table next morning with a countenance so much damaged, and was so cast down on her account, that she could not find it in her heart to refuse him three months' longer credit, until he can get another remittance from England.

"Jenks, another of our boarders, was garroted twice in one week; it has a bewildering effect upon Jenks; it makes him unsteady in the legs, and causes his breath to smell of rum-punch; on the first occasion of the robbing and choking outrage, he rung the area-bell of the house on the other side of the street, until a policeman interfered and brought him home; then Jenks inveigled the policeman into the house, and delivered him over to me with many formalities, assuring me that he was a garroter whom he had overpowered and captured by main strength, and he showed the star on the M. P.'s breast, the place where the invincible fist of Jenks had 'smashed his jaw.' Jenks was garroted again two days after, and brought home by a gentlemanly-looking individual who picked his pockets at the door, took his over-coat, changed hats with him, and then rang the bell for the girl to come and let Jenks into the house. The girl came, and found this individual trying to whittle off one of the pickets of the iron fence with his pen-knife, and meanwhile making a furious attempt to sing the words of the 'Evening Hymn to the Virgin' to the classic air of 'Root, Hog, or Die.'

"The mania has extended even to the kitchen, and the servants are now following the example of their betters, and getting garroted on every favorable opportunity; if the boy goes to the butcher's, he is invariably, according to his own account, attacked by a band of ruffians and robbed of the money before he gets home; this has happened four successive days in broad day-light, and has cost Mrs. Snagley about four-and-sixpence a time. I sent Salley, the little errand-girl, with a dime for some beer, and she returned in tears, with the news that she, too, had been 'garroted,' and had lost the change. She had her fist full of lemon-candy, and had two big apples in her pocket, which I suppose the robbers had given her."

MORMON SERMON.—Brigham Young the Mormon prophet, thus denounces one Gideon, who had the audacity to question his prophetic character and purity of the "spiritual wife" system:

"Who is this Gideon who is come among you? He used to sell tape in St. Louis and now he is here to blaspheme the Lord and destroy the House of Israel. And what should ye, childern of the covenant, do in return for this evil work? Out with the bowie knives ye wore like breastpins at Nauvoo, and, in the name of God, and the Prophet, give him Hell!"

FROM OUR ATLANTIC EXCHANGES.

From Washington---Rumors.

The New Orleans Delta says, all the letter writers state that the President is hard pushed by the office seekers. One writer says:

I heard the President say, on Saturday last, that he hadn't time to say his prayers, and thanked God that the next day would be the Sabbath, when he would have a day of rest, on which to recruit his shattered health.

Another paper says:

The clerks in the State Department will have a busy time of it before the summer is out, if the report is true that Secretary Cass intends to present in his report to Congress, a detailed statement of the wrongs inflicted on the persons and property of our citizens by other powers. It is estimated ten millions of dollars would not make good what our citizens have been illegally plundered of by the petty anarchies bordering on our seas. Hayti alone—that is the negro chiefs that have ruled it for the last fifty years—have robbed on the high seas, by open force, American vessels to the amount of two or three hundred thousand dollars, for which redress has never in any manner, been obtained, or even asked by our Government.

More than an hundred sases of cruel and unjust imprisonment of American seamen, and, in many instances, of horrible death, by ill-treatment have been on file, with all the proof in the state department for years, without leading to any inquiry or action.

Costa Rica and New Granada will be brought to the bar, and made to settle their accounts in the first instance, and England will have to help to collect the bill of demands, or forfeit the Clayton Bulwer treaty.

Hayti has neither land nor money for our government, but she can be made to concede a free port, and bind herself to treat white Americans as well as if they were black.

WAGON ROADS TO THE PACIFIC.—A Washington dispatch to the New Orleans Delta, of the 1st ult., says:

The Secretary of the Interior has had a conversation with Messrs. Douglas, Weller, Chapman of Nebraska, Rice of Minnessota, and Denver, relative to the wagon roads to the Pacific, authorized by the last Congress. The whole affair was discussed, and they came to the conclusion that there should be a general superintendent of the work, to be divided into three sections, with sub-superintendents to each, and it is said that Col. Wm. H. Nobles, of Minnessota, was regarded by all as eminently fitted for general superintendent.

Col. E. Lane, nephew of the President, died on the 26th of March from the effect of the poisoning at the National Hotel, Washington, in which the President came near losing his life.

The election in Rhode Island has resulted in the triumph of the Republicans.

Hon. Robert J. Walker, of Mississippi, has been appointed Governor of Kansas.

INTERESTING RE-UNION.—Gen. La Vega, the Mexican General, is stopping at Willard's Hotel, at Washington, as is also Col. May, who took La Vega's guns, and made him prisoner at the battle of Palo Alto; and to complete the curious reunion, Col. Magruder, to whom May handed La Vega over for safe keeping, is at the same Hotel. It must have been pleasant, as well as suggestive, to see these warriors assembled at the same dinner table, in a friendly way, and popping champaigne corks instead of nine pounders.—Balt. Patriot.

The New York papers not having a large supply of murders within a few days, to get up a sensation about, have solaced their appetite for the marvellous by reporting at great length the outlandish highfalutin of a spiritualist medium, one of the inspired feminine preachers.

DEMAND FOR DAMAGE AT GREYTOWN.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune writes:

Lord Napier came here with four or five millions of claims against our Government for the destruction of alleged property of British subjects at the bombardment of Greytown. Two weeks before the late administration went out, M. Sartiges preferred similar demands on behalf of French subjects, requesting Mr. Marcy to leave them open for adjustment by his successor; but he prepared a reply which is regarded as conclusive, against our liability, and Lord Napier feeling its force and bearing upon England in its application to Copenhagen and Canton, will withhold his intended reclamations.

The trial of Mrs. Cunningham and Eckel, for the murder of Dr. Burdell, was to have commenced on the 13th of April.

TRAGEDY IN CLARKSVILLE, TEXAS.—The Jefferson Gazette, of the 7th inst., says:

Jones, who absconded from Paris with his neighbor's wife, was caught in Arkansas, and after trial under writ of habeas corpus, was released, and then killed in Clarksville by the brother of the paramour. We learn that the people of Clarksville were so outraged by the conduct of Jones, that he was permitted to lie in the street where he died, until preparations were ready for his burial.

The Republicans of Pennsylvania have nominated DAVID WILMOT as their candidate for Governor at the next State election.

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE.—A late London paper says that recently Miss Florence Nightingale, accompanied by Lord Panmure, paid a visit to Woolwich, and was received by Sir F. Williams, commandent of the garrison, who proceeded with the distinguished party to the Royal Artillery Hospital, which they minutely inspected. Miss Nightingale recognized several of the Royal Artillery who had been under her care as patients in the hospitals of the East, and conversed with them. The visit was unexpected, and but few were aware that the lady who accompained the Secretary-at-War was Florence Nightingale.

Mr. Thomas M. Heston, Expressman between this place and Millerton, is our authorized Agent to receive Advertisements, Job Work, Subscriptions, or Monies intended for this Office.

Job Printing.—Every description of Printing, such as Cards, Bill Heads, Circulars, Handbills, Law and Mercantile Blanks, etc., etc., executed in superior style at this office, at reasonable rates.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 8, 1857.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

It is an unpleasant task—we don't like to do it—we had rather not—in fact we wish we were not obliged to—but stern necessity compels—and duty to ourselves and our importunate creditors demands that we should ask our numerous friends and admirers, whose names adorn our subscription list, to come down with a small amount of dust, coin, or other "legal tender," in order that we may be able to liquidate, provide things comfortable for the inner and outer man, replenish our depleted finances, keep poverty at a respectful distance, and better our temporal condition generally.

In return, we can only promise to make our paper as readable as possible—to struggle manfully through the coming dry spell, along with the crowd—and in case of the marriage of any of our subscribers, to give the deplorable event a suitable notice, with extended comments, in case that cake is sent.

Orders from the country promptly attended to.

N. B. We are in earnest in making this demand, and those who will be kind enough to comply will be entitled to a liberal slice of our gratitude, besides the clear conscience and quiet pillow which is a sure attendant upon those who pay the printer.

COMING EVENTS.

In summing up our future prospects, we are not disposed to look at the dark side of the picture—but, judging from our past experience of dry seasons in this particular locality, we think the prospect, for the coming summer, if not quite discouraging—is anything but flattering. The warm dry weather for several weeks past, is without a parallel in any previous season within the memory of any of the ancient miners here or hereabouts.

To be sure we know not what Providence may have in store for us, but it is highly improbable that we shall have anything more than a small shower of rain during the present spring. The crops of barley and other grain in this and adjacent counties, are already past redemption. Acres of barley are already turning into the sear and yellow hue of harvest time, and are being cut by the owners for fodder. But the agricultural interest, although important in itself, is not by any means the only interest which will suffer by this early drought. The occupation of a large majority of our inhabitants is mining, and it is this class, upon whom depends whatever measure of prosperity may fall to our share—on whom the burden will fall most heavily. Their season of harvest, which at all times depends upon the uncertain tenure of the weather, and is necessarily a short one, will this year be unusually brief; and as it is not uncommon, even after the most favorable seasons, to hear the grumbling cry of hard times, we may reasonably expect during the coming summer a full chorus to that same old tune.

With regard to the prospect of a water ditch being brought in within the life time of any of the present generation, any practical miner will laugh in your face if you suggest the possibility of such a contingency. A Mariposa Water Ditch has become a standing joke with the people of this County, and a by-word to "the rest of mankind." We have not time or space to enumerate the many causes which have been stumbling blocks in the way of this undertaking.

THE BALL LAST FRIDAY EVENING.—The Firemens Ball was largely attended. A greater number were present than we remember to have seen upon any similar occasion in the County. There were a number of belles—a large number of beaus, and several "bucks." We would like to give the initials of some of the former, but it would be cutting it rather "fat" to be agreeable in this latitude. However, there were some handsome girls—some quite the opposite—some good dancers—and some who did not seem to have the full use of their pedal extremities—some with tiny feet and others with feet large enough to entitle them to an official position in the tract society, with legs supposed to match—from the size of those of a billiard table, to probably quite a small and delicate article.

As a general thing, the girls were coquettish, and felt oats, which most likely they never had eaten—To an invitation to dance, a ready affirmative would almost always be given, but when the dance arrived and the lady was sought, she was likely to be on the floor with some one else, who would make faces and look triumphant at the deluded individual, who would swear in an approved style.

Conspicuous among the gents were the slight and graceful forms of a certain Editor and a Supervisor, whose terpsichorean performances and classic evolutions, much resembling those of a porpoise in shoal water, excited frequent applause. The County Court was there, and so was the 13th Judicial District, the latter of whom did not essay to show his agility, except in a promenade, evidently considering himself better qualified for the Bench than for kicking up his heels and treading upon other people's corns.

There were Doctors and Lawyers, numerous—one of the latter, whose general contour resembles that of a pair of tongs, made himself agreeable and pleasant by making fun of the awkward who were shinning round to the detriment of any they chanced to run against. We would like to have seen him dance, it would have been doubtless the feature of the evening.

A distinguished military gentleman was there, but didn't laugh as much as common, being under the restraint of a pair of immaculate white kids, which seemed to distress and bind him up.

Quantities of beats were present, and no paragorie, we judge, from the squawking that proceeded from the ante-rooms.

Also, there was a slight muss, just for spice. Gentleman No. 1, politely invited gentleman No. 2 out into the street, in order that he might show his kind feelings and regard for him, by slapping his chops. Gent. No. 2 accepted, but on getting to the door reconsidered and did'nt go.

The Firemen were out in full numbers, in red shirts and black pants; and all, from the Foreman, Mr. Dimond, to the lowest private, did all in their power to render the party pleasant. The music, under Jo Myers, was good, and the supper furnished by Hays, excellent. The party as a whole was unexceptionable, and passed off to the satisfaction of all. Dancing was continued till morning, when those who had "gals" went home with them, and those who had'nt did likewise—reminded of their miserable condition by seeing others less worthy, enjoying the delights of female accompaniments, even though for no further in life than going home from a Ball.

THE LEGISLATURE.

After a session of four months duration, this dignified body closed its labors on Thursday of last week, and gracefully "winked out." Several important measures were passed during the last days of the session, among which is the Stamp Act, which comes into effect on the 1st of July next.

The Gambling Law has been approved by the Governor and is now in force, so look out, sports.

Various appropriation bills were passed, after which came up the "Mutual Admiration" resolutions for consideration—votes of thanks to the respective presiding officers and clerks of the two houses, varied in the Assembly with a rehearsal of comedy by some of the sharp ones. The holders of that species of valuable live stock, known as canines, will be gratified to learn that the "Dog Law" was defeated, although it is said that the "member from Placer," made strenuous efforts to effect its passage.

The lobby members made frantic efforts to have the session prolonged for a few days, but it was no go.—The members being mostly flat broke and in debt, with the ominous sign of the Hotel and Boarding House keepers of "positively no credit," staring them in the face at every turn, which, combined with their anxiety to get home to their beloved constituents, undoubtedly prompted them to make good time.

Thus departed the Legislature of a thousand privileges, which, although it has not done as well as the people could wish, is perhaps worthy of the credit of having done better than most of its predecessors.

THE NEW GAMBLING ACT.

The Gambling law has gone into effect. It is like the law before existing, with the exception that its punishments are much more severe—and also, that any person playing at the table, or being cognizant of such playing—may be made evidence without criminating himself. This, in prosecutions under this act, will produce positive evidence, and be effective in preventing gambling. The punishments are: a dealer of a game, or the owner thereof, may be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000, and a term in the State Prison not exceeding five years. Persons who may bet or play against the game, may be fined a sum not exceeding fine hundred dollars and imprisonment in the County Jail for a term not exceeding six months. Any person owning a house, in whole or in part, and shall knowingly permit any of the games mentioned, to be dealt or played, shall be imprisoned in the County Jail six months, and fined four thousand dollars.

District Attorneys get one hundred dollars for each conviction.

THE K. N. ORGANIZATION FORMALLY DISSOLVED.—On Wednesday evening, says the Sacramento Union, a number of the leading members of the late Know Nothing party of this State, met, by previous arrangement, with closed doors, in Sacramento, for the purpose of advising upon the best course to be pursued as to their future political position. With entire unanimity they came to the conclusion that it would be useless to longer continue a separate organization. They then resolved to sustain the Administration of President Buchanan, and to stand upon his platform so long as those principles should be mantained. The asemblage embraced many of the leaders of the late party.

RETIRED.—Judge Shattuck of the Superior Court, San Francisco, has retired from the Bench. The Herald says:

"Judge Shattuck, who retired from the bench yesterday, was one of the best magistrates that ever presided in our Courts. He leaves the responsible and honorable position he has occupied for the past two years with an untarnished reputation, accompanied with the regrets of all classes of citizens for the loss of so faithful a public officer. The indefatigable industry and strict integrity displayed by him while wearing the judicial ermine, will long be remembered in San Francisco."

At a meeting of the members of the Bar in San Francisco, resolutions were adopted expressive of their esteem for Judge Shattuck as a man and a magistrate, and their regrets at his retirement from his official position.

Hon. D. C. BRODERICK arrived on the last steamer—his experience during his short stay in Washington, has not been very pleasing or satisfactory to himself. So far from being able to dictate or control the California appointments, as per reputed agreement between himself and Gwin, the friends of the latter seem to have obtained the Lion's share of them. However, he has six years to serve yet, during which he will doubtless be able to reward long tried and faithful friends, who have clung to him through evil and good report—and mortify his enemies who have pursued him with rancor and animosity of the most bitter description.

NEW STEAMSHIP COMPANY.—The stock of the new steamship company, styled the People's Line, to run between New York and San Francisco, is reported taken, and the company organized. The steamers will be much larger than the largest now running. Fare will be reduced nearly one-half. The prominent men of San Francisco and New York are interested as managers and members of the company. The people of this State should feel interested in its establishment and success, for its low rates of passage and accommodations will induce thousands to come to this State who have hitherto been prevented by the high cost of coming.

BEAUTIFUL GARDEN.—A beautiful garden is that of Mr. J. Neal, situated upon the opposite side of the Creek from town. Over one hundred varieties of flowers may here be found, with a choice variety of trees, shrubs and vines. At the recent Fireman's Ball, boquets were arrayed from this garden consisting of forty-six varieties. Mr. N. has a strawberry patch which, at present, is yielding handsomely. We suspect that Mrs. Neal exercises a controlling influence in the Floral Department, from its choice selections and the care bestowed upon it.

☞ Large amounts of Lumber have been contracted for at different Mills in this vicinity, by companies who intend fluming the Merced river, near Ridley's Ferry, and from that point, at different places to Split Rock. One of the flumes will be the largest we ever knew, if the present design of size is carried out.—Miners imagine the river will be lower this season than ever before, and if we have no more rain, their imaginings will be realized. A great body of the snow in the mountains has already melted, and there will be little to keep the river up after the first of July.

CRABB'S PARTY.

Capt. W. D. KIRK, late Sheriff of Stanislaus county, residing at La Grange, has resigned his office and gone to join Crabb. He is a gentleman of firm and determined character, reliable at all times, and will be a valuable acquisition to Crabb's party.

It is quite probable that Crabb has met with reverses—one report is, that thirty have been killed. Their force was altogether to small to affect their object; and as for relying upon the assistance of Mexicans, those disaffected with the present government and profess a desire for a change, it is folly. There are too many examples extant of the treacherous character of the mongrels of that country, to justify the placing of any reliance upon them. The Mexicans are well aware of the superiority of Americans—and are also well aware that if Americans should succeed in separating Sonora from Mexico, and establishing a government, that their participation and influence in it would be next to nothing. Though at first they may acquiesce, yet in the end they will be found implacable enemies—and will turn upon their deliverers with greater animosity than they ever evinced towards their worst oppressors. Nothing but a force to which they must submit, will ever answer in the occupation of any of these countries.

Several from this vicinity, well known and respected, gallant spirits as ever lived, are in this, we believe ill-advised, and ill-prepared expedition—and for them much anxiety is felt by numerous friends.

Trouble Brewing in New Granada.

By the last accounts from the Isthmus, there is every prospect of a collision between Uncle Sam and the New Granadian government.

There are undoubtedly good grounds existing for giving the mongrel cut-throats who infest that region, what they have long deserved, a severe threshing.

The Isthmus of Panama is, and has long been, a "den of thieves," and the sooner they are wiped out, the better for the safety of passengers who come and go by that route, and for the general good of humanity. The following items we gather from the Panama correspondence of the Bulletin in relation to affairs in that quarter:

ACTION OF THE NEW GRANADA CONGRESS ON THE UNITED STATES CLAIMS.—In the House of Representives of New Granada, a conversation sprang up in relation to the course of the Executive and Cabinet on the propositions and demands of Mr. Morse, which resulted in an approval of their action by a unanimous vote. A resolution was then passed unanimously, authorizing the Executive to contract a loan of $500,000 for purpose of defence of the Isthmus, in case it was invaded by the United States. A proposition to confer unlimited authority upon the President in case of invasion during the recess of Congress, was passed to a second reading.

OPINIONS OF THE NEW PRESIDENT ON THE SUBJECT.—Senor Ospina, the new President, had arrived at Bogota, in order to be inaugurated on the 1st April. El Tiempo says it is intimated in some quarters that he is not very well satisfied with the course things have taken on the American question; and that he would have preferred that the Government had temporized with our Commissioners, until his arrival, "as he said to look forward to the time when the Isthmus will necessarily be alienated from New Granada." This agrees with what I wrote two or three steamers since in regard to Ospina's opinions; but I see no reason to change the proposition I then stated, that the public mind in New Granada had become so inflamed against people of the United States, that it would be difficult for him to come to any arrangements that would be satisfactory to our Government.

RETURNED.—Mr. B. F. Bachman, an old resident, came on the last steamer. We expected that he would inveigle a female while at home, and bring her on to share his joys and sorrows in Mariposa—but she came not; and Mr. B. states that his repeated attempts in this line were failures. However, he obtained a hooped petticoat, as a souvenier perhaps, and brought that. It is made of steel, and is a curiosity. The modus operandi is explained by Mr. B. most edifyingly, to wit: that a woolen petticoat is put on "which hangs down straight," and then the "harness" of steel comes next, increasing the female to satisfactory proportions.—On seeing the arrangement, the words of the hymn rise in the mind with much force—

"But O, their end! their dreadful end!"

THE LATE HOMICIDE.—On Friday last, the case of Mrs. Whitney for the shooting of Askins, came up for examination before Justice Watts. Mrs. W. confessed to the killing of the deceased, but alleged that it was done in self defence. As her testimony was corroborated by that of other witnesses, which tended to show that so far from the act being premeditated, that it was done on the impulse of the moment, and in self defence, the accused was discharged. Nothing was elicited during the examination differing materially from the evidence before the Coroner's Jury.

CORRECTION.—In our last number we stated that Col. Bugg's Ferry Boat had been carried off by the freshet. We were misinformed, as we are happy to learn from a letter received yesterday from Col. Bugg. The ferry boat was not lost, and travel has not been interrupted, except at short intervals. The river, though high, can be crossed with safety at this point at present.

THANKS to J. P. Clark, for two mountain grouse received per Dr. Burnell. Two deer, we are informed, fell the same day to his unerring rifle. We wish we were with you Pink, in the mountains, and if nothing happens we will be poco tiempo.

NEWS BY YESTERDAY'S MAIL.

ELECTION IN STOCKTON.—B. W. Bours, Democrat, is elected Mayor by nearly two to one. All the Democratic ticket is elected, except Councilmen in the Third Ward.

The day passed off without disturbance. Only about one-half the votes were registered.

SUPREME COURT DECISION.—The Supreme Court sustain David Scannel in the Sheriffalty of San Francisco. Mr. Doane, General of the Vigilance Committee forces, and who was elected by them to fill the place of Scannel as Sheriff, will have to wait a short time for the material recognition of his valuable services thus rendered.

LATER FROM CHINA.—The British steamer Queen, while on her passage from Hong Kong to Macoa, was seized by her Chinese passengers and crew. Europeans on board were killed, or by jumping overboard, drowned. The Queen was afterwards burned, and $50,000 worth of opium destroyed.

The British war steamers are destroying Chinese Junks wherever they find them.

A large destruction of flour and several English seamen have been decapitated near Hong Kong.

Every report goes to show that active and energetic resistance is to be made to the inroads of "outside barbarians."

ARRIVED.—By yesterday's stage came Senator S. A. MERRITT. The Col. is looking hale, hearty—we might say fat, but for the vulgarity of the term. He has been an active and popular member of the Senate during the term just closed, and his career we think has lost him none of his former constituents, and gained him many friends.

LOVE, MURDER AND SUICIDE.

A correspondent of the Marysville Inquirer, writing from Rabbit Creek under date of April 26th, gives the following account of the murder of a lady by her lover and his subsequent suicide:

Between 12 and 1 o'clock to-day, as melancholy a transaction occurred as was ever our painful task to witness on record. A man by the name of G. H. Yates called at the residence of Mr. Anderson, where a young woman (sister of Mrs. Anderson) was living, and after interrogating her as to whether she would marry him, received an answer that "at present it was impossible—she could not," on which, he drew a revolver and fired at her, the ball entering her right side, killing her instantly. He then drew a small single barreled pistol, and discharged its contents at his own head. The ball entered a little above the right eye, and lodged within the cranium. He is not yet dead, although speechless, the brain oozing from the orifice in the skull—will no doubt expire soon.

Since writing the above, we have been informed that the ball fired at the young lady took effect under the ear, instead of in the side, mistaking the blood on her dress for the place where the ball entered.

MORTALITY AMONG THE FILIBUSTERS.—The New York Tribune has the following on the subject of the mortality among the filibusters, a topic which of late the advocates of Walker's interests seem to avoid allusion to:

"Major Torrey, late of Walker's army, who left the steamer Texas at Key West, in the course of a conversation with one of the passengers, while on their trip from Aspinwall, stated that he took out to Nicaragua 81 recruits, and with the exception of his son and a captain, all of his command had either been killed in battle or come to their deaths by sickness."

THE PRESIDENT HEARS OF THE DEATH OF HIS NEPHEW.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Post, writing on the 27 inst., says:

Yesterday noon, as he was sitting in his cabinet room, surrounded by a group of anxious expectants of official favors, and just after he had announced to one of them that there were only one hundred and thirty-seven candidates for the post for which he had applied, a dispatch was placed in his trembling hands. "My God," said he, "I have lost a dear relative. Gentlemen, excuse me," and he bowed the company out. A nephew of the President, Elliott Eskridge Lane, who had attended his journey to the Inauguration, and who had returned to occupy tue mansion of the President at Wheatland, had died.

POPULATION OF CALIFORNIA.—After copying the statement of the voting population of the State, upon which it is proposed to take the basis for two Congressional Districts, the Calaveras Chronicle says:

From the above, in aggregate, 110,206 votes, the reader will perceive that California, though actually represented by two members of the popular branch of Congress, is, by reason of its voting population, entitled to four. If we reckon to each voter, four inhabitants, we sum up an aggregate of 440,824 inhabitants.—This is perhaps a fair estimate for California. In the State of New York, the voters, as shown by the late Presidential election, in proportion to the total population, are as one to six and a half. New York has seventeen times as many Representatives in Congress as California, whilst she has only five times as many voters. In New York 17,647 votes elect a member—in California, it takes 55,167.

Georgia, with about the same white population, and 5,000 less voters than California, has eight representatives in Congress. The census of 1860 will place us in this respect, on a different footing. Should the anticipations of those least sanguine as to the probable increase of population in this State during the next three years be realized, we shall then number 600,000 inhabitants. California will then rank, numerically, with Maine, (and in whites with) Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri. She will outrank Vermont, South Carolina, North Carolina, Maryland and Georgia. If the ratio of apportionment is increased from its present figures, 92,000, to 100,000, California will then be entitled to six representatives in Congress, whilst many of the older States will suffer a considerable diminution in their representation.

THE NEW MEXICAN TREATY.—Good authority states that instead of the purchase of Lower California and Sonora, our Government will conciliate the South by paying the sum of 15,000,000 for the Isthmus of Tehuantepec.

It is also rumored that Senator Benjamin has been offered the appointment for the purpose of accomplishing the purchase.

MINING NEWS.

Messrs. Hillman & Co. took out of their claim on Washington Flat, last week, $303 00—the product of the labor of three men. The claims on the flat are generally paying well, but owing to the scarcity of water, which is growing daily less, they are unable to wash but a few hours.

SHERLOCK'S CREEK.—At White's Flat, above the Falls, Austin & Co., of the "Great American Claim," have been recently making good pay. The claim has been heretofore considered on the condemned list, but the industry and perseverance of the proprietors has finally met its reward.

BUCKEYE.—The miners in the vicinity of Buckeye are making money, we are told. The ditch of the Appling Brothers, taking water from Mariposa creek to the above locality, has recently been completed, and will afford water for a considerable time to come. The region of Buckeye and Yackee gulch is rich, and has been but superficially worked, for want of water. To the Messrs. Appling, the miners in that vicinity are indebted, and we hope that their energy and enterprise may meet with proper reward, particularly "Bob," who holds a high place in our affections. He is so very social, and is one of those chaps we alluded to a short time since, as coming to our sanctum and stealing lager, tobacco and sich.

RAIN.—On Wednesday evening clouds gathered, and after much threatening in the way of wind and looking black, condescended to shell out. A gentle shower commenced and continued at intervals throughout the night. But yesterday morning dawned bright and beautiful, and our expectations of rain, sufficient to relieve suffering vegetation, were dispelled.

HUTCHINGS' MAGAZINE.—We have received the May number of Hutching's California Magazine. It is equal if not superior to any preceding numbers.—This Magazine has shown a gradual improvement from its commencement, and is well worthy of patronage.

Those wishing to subscribe, will address Hutchings & Rosenfield, 146 Montgomery street, San Francisco. Subscription per year $3.00.

THE GAZETTE.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 8, 1857.

"LO! THE POOR INDIAN!"

From the first settlement of the American continent by Europeans, down to the present time, the history of the aboriginal inhabitants has been marked by one uninterrupted series of fraud, rapacity and plighted faith on the part of their white neighbors. Step by step they have been driven back from the Atlantic States—acre after acre of their fair forests has been wrested from them by the grossest violations or evasions of solemn treaties, till hemmed in on every side by civilization, the poor red man will soon have not a foot to call his own.

When fraud and evasions have failed to rob them of their own, excuses have been sought for commencing and waging a war of extermination against some tribe who perchance have stood in the way of the "squatter sovereign."

The history of the origin of the many Indian wars which have taken place in the territory of the United States, as it stands recorded, is a tissue of falsehoods from beginning to end. In nine cases out of ten, the whites have been the aggressors. The recent troubles with the Indians in Oregon, it is conceded by men who are cognizant of the facts in relation to the origin of the difficulties, were brought about by men calling themselves white, who, when out on hunting or exploring parties, if they came across a stray Indian, would shoot him down for the laudable purpose of seeing him kick. So with the Tulare Indians, still nearer home. In '49 and '50, small parties of men could travel through the territory of that tribe with perfect impunity, and one particular instance we know of, where two men, on a prospecting tour, fell in with a camp or rancheria of these Indians. They were treated in a friendly and hospitable manner—food was provided for them, and the services of a guide proffered them on their departure. One of the party, who was an old mountaineer and familiar with the habits and dispositions of most of the Indian tribes, stated that in the course of his travels he had never met with a tribe who appeared so friendly and peaceably disposed.

But two years passed away, and we find them guilty of the most barbarous, acts and hunted down like wild beasts. How was such a state of affairs brought about? Undoubtedly by the recklessness of parties of worthless white men, who provoked these hostilities, by which good peaceable settlers have suffered.

Of a piece with the usual course pursued towards them, are the recent encroachments in the territory of Kansas by lawless bands of squatters upon the Shawnee reservation. Whether Government will interfere in the protection of the rights of this tribe, who are considerably advanced in civilization, remains to be seen. It is more probable that the usual benevolent policy will be pursued, and these unfortunate people removed still farther west.

COUNTY COURT.—The County Court commenced its labors on Monday last, Judge Bondurant, presiding.—On Tuesday, the case of Fairbanks vs. Bair & Woodhouse came up for trial. The former brought suit against the latter for the recovery of a mining claim on Washington Flat, taken possession of by the defendant in May, 1856.

Harris and Allison for the plaintiff; R. H. Daly for the defendant.

On Wednesday, the appeal case of J. C. Fremont vs. the Merced Mining Company for "forcible entry and detainer," came up for trial. This case was tried several months since, before Justice Washburn, and appeal taken by the defendants. Lockwood, Daly and Worthington, for plaintiffs; Fenner, Deering and Harris, for the defendants. At the hour of our going to press last evening, this case had not been decided.

Several other cases of importance are to be tried during the present term, a full summary of which will be given in our next week's issue.

POUND DEAD.—A distinguished politician, near the corner of Main and Fourth streets; one of the long-eared, four-legged species, and in these characteristics he only differed from the common politician.—By what manner of means his stubborn soul made its exodus through his tough hide and ass-cended to some unknown borro realm, is not clearly ass-certained. There is, however, no doubt but that his "tabernacle of clay" was punctured, perhaps, by a bullet.

We call him a politician because he was instinctively politic; he would steal in the morning before people were up, and could bray nearly as loud as the loudest of his brethren, who ass-pired to instruct the people last fall in political duties.

He was a Democrat, in the fullest acceptation of the term. He was not an advocate of internal improvements, or a division of the public lands, or of disunion, but believed in packing his own panniers as his ancestors did, as mentioned in the earliest records. Neither did he believe in rotation in office, but particularly desirous of keeping his own official position. He took pride in his ancient descent and lineage, and no doubt, just before his death, was delighted at his ass-pects of the future.

He was an old resident, but has always made himself useful. His morning bray at early dawn, will be remembered by many who then would rise and take a drink of stupefaction, called lager, and then go to bed again.

He was a patriot, inasmuch as he loved his country, or the stealings thereof; which, is not known.—In principle, he was a follower of Jo Smith in one respect, that of having a multiplicity of wives, and the hills about this sweet little place are resonant with their roars, which are probably wailings for the departed. Requiescat en pace.

No more we'll hear thy evening carol—
No more thy morning call—
No more wilt thou chase female jackasses all over this place, for thou art exterminated, probably, by means of a large size Colt's six shooter pistol ball.

IMPROVEMENT.—The Methodist Church in this place has been neatly papered and tastefully fitted up inside, and compared to its former appearance—which was decidedly shabby—looks quite respectable.

Great credit is due the ladies of Mariposa, for their zeal and perseverence in obtaining subscriptions for this object. We have an idea of placing a list of delinquent subscribers in the hands of some of the fair sex for collection, with instructions to give the wicked no peace.

RUMORED RISE IN THE PRICE OF LAGER.—The rumor which became current in town a few days since, that Picquet & Co., of the Maikefer Brewery, were about to raise the price of this invigorating beverage, in consequence of the increased demand for the article, caused principally by the return from San Francisco of an ancient friend and patron of that institution, turns out to be a mistake—as we are informed they have made arrangements to meet the increased demand at their usual prices.

THE COACHMAN AND THE HEIRESS.—The Dean and Boker matrimonial case was decided recently by Judge Davies.—The wife is to dwell with her husband, and he as in duty bound, is to love and cherish her. It is to be hoped that the course of their wedded love will run smoothly henceforth. The husband is the coachman of the bride's father, a wealthy merchant in New York. Judge Davies in his decision said:

"I feel it incumbent upon me to say that she has stated that this marriage was one of her own free choice and free will; that the defendant has used no means which an honorable lover would not have used under any circumstances. I feel it also due to this lady to say that in the course of my life I have met with few ladies of so much intelligence, so much delicacy of feeling and propriety of demeanor, with so strong and deep a sense of the duties which she owed to her parents and the duties which she owed to her own free chosen husband; it is this conflict between those duties which has given her the pain, anxiety and agitation which has been alluded to."

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—Mr. Ephraim Hartsock of Hendricks county, Ind., while taking the harness off of a horse in his stable, on Monday last, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. The horse was also killed, and the stable set on fire and destoryed.

Written for the Mariposa Gazette.

"MUSHROOM MUGGINS," The Man with More $ than (cts.) sense.

FROM THE "SUGGS" PAPERS.

Perhaps the potency of the "almighty dollar," was never more thoroughly exemplified in a small way, than in the case of my old acquaintance Muggins—or, as we were wont to term him when he was in moderate circumstances, old Mush and dirty Mug "for short." Since his luck turned, and he became the possessor of a few thousands, he is addressed as Mr., Esq., Hon., Judge—and some of his admirers have even bestowed on him the rank of Col., though there is nothing in the history of his military career to indicate that he ever commanded even a Militia company. Four years ago he never was supposed to be capable of expressing an opinion worth quoting—and a man would have been called green who would have been guilty of appealing to him even to decide a dispute in a game of poker—but now he is considered good authority on any subject pertaining to the public weal, from compounding a cocktail, to the question of the constitutionality of the State debt. He is consulted in all matters of moment, from the naming of a bran new baby to the getting up of a Fourth of July celebration; and the mover of any new enterprise has only to enlist "Muggins" in his cause to insure success. Muggins was formerly considered dull—remarkably dull—but now the tune is changed, and it is—"O, what a funny fellow Mr. M. is"—"droll genius, really"—"witty fellow, very"—"and so eccentric." His eccentricities were formerly ranked under the head of stupidities, but time has wrought change, or rather change has wrought changes.

Muggins is generally surrounded by a troupe of admirers, who, in consideration of the perquisites of their office, (which are dealt out to them in small rations of liquor, cigars, and other etceteras,) volunteer to raise a laugh at all of his stale jokes. His second hand attempts at wit are sure to bring down the applause of these paid toadies whom he keeps in his train for that especial purpose. They have so wrought upon the vanity of their file leader, that he has actually become flattered into the belief that he is really smart, shrewd, original, and "all that sort of thing;" and as he has not enough of common sense to find out his mistake, his case is a hopeless one.

He will undoubtedly live out his allotted time, and pass off the stage of life remembered by his acquaintances as Mushroom Muggins, the man whose pockets were lined with a large amount of tin, and whose face was adorned with an equal quantity of brass.

THE STEAM WAGON.—Mr. Overton, the inventor of the steam wagon, is in Sacramento, making preparations for constructing a steam wagon to run between that city and Marysville. The presumption is that the vehicle will carry a weight of fourteen tons, and at the rate of ten miles an hour. Messrs. Ryan & Cole, of this city, have purchased the right to run a train between San Francisco and San Jose, and are having the necessary machinery manufactured at the Union Foundry.—Golden Era, 3d inst.

☞ A Kentucky editor advertises as follows:

"Wanted, at this office, a bull-dog of any color, except pumpkin and milk, of respectable size, snub nose, cropped ears, abbreviated continuation, and bad disposition—who can come when called with a raw beefsteak, and who will bite the man who spits tobacco juice on our stove, and steals our exchanges."

☞ MR. LEROY VINING has returned and reassumed the management of the El Dorado Saloon, and doubtless will soon render it as attractive as ever.

☞ NEWCOME & BLUMENTHAL have just received a large lot of Heidsic wine, a genuine article. Also Ale of the choice brands in bottles. These articles may be had at their Saloon, at reasonable rates.

☞ We are requested to state, by THOS. W. LONG, Esq., that he has received Land Warrants for John Baird and Francis McDonald, from Washington.—If this should meet the eye of either of these gentlemen, they will please call or send an order for the delivery of the same, or they will be returned to the U. S. Pension Office. *3t

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ DR. L. J. CZAPKAY.—We would direct the especial attention of Invalids to the perusal of Dr. L. J. Czapkay's advertisement; to be found in another column of this paper, to place the services of a learned and experienced Physician within their reach. So much ill has been inflicted on the human family from the pernicious and ignorant practices of empirics, that it seems as if we were fulfilling a bounden duty to make known where judicious relief can be obtained. To those unfortunate enough to suffer from the effects of sexual or private diseases, or their ill-treatment, we cheerfully commend Dr. L. J. Czapkay as a man of rare scientific and medical acquirements—possessing all the requirements, from long experience and acknowledged skill, for the successful practice of his profession. Having made sexual complaints his especial study, like the celebrated Ricord, of Paris, he is enabled to guarantee a speedy and permanent cure in all cases of private or chronic disease, whether the effect of contagion, self abuse, or loss of virility, and in order that patients at a distance may avail themselves of his advice, free consultation by letter is open to them. The knowledge we have of the numerous cures he has effected, some of which were of long standing, leads us to place much faith in Dr. C.'s efficacy, and commend him to the confidence of those in ill-health. f13-3m

HYDRAULIC MINING.

The Sacramento Age thus describes the use of hose-pipe, in what is called "hydraulic" mining:

Of late the application of hydraulic power has nearly superseded the pick and shovel in surface mining. As the richer placers are claimed and exhausted it becomes necessary for somebody to work the hill-sides, where the gold is less plentiful, and where some more expeditious way of mining must be devised to make it profitable. The machinery now used in hill-side mining is simple but amazingly powerful. A stream of water is diverted from its course, and conveyed in a ditch or flume to the top of the hill which is to be dug down. Near the place of operation a small reservoir is built, fifty or sixty feet above where they begin to dig, and to this is attached a long hose, made of stout canvas or leather; to the lower end of the hose is fastened an iron pipe six feet long, and tapering down from the size of the hose to a nozzle of three-quarters of an inch in diameter.—The hose suspended from the reservoir above, and hanging down over the bank nearly perpendicular, is filled from the stream, and the weight of the column forces the water through the pipe with tremendous power; a miner holds the pipe and gives it the desired direction, and the stream tears away the bank. By playing near the bottom the bank is undermined and falls down in great masses of many tons, and when one of these "caves" takes place, the piper plies the water on the fallen earth until it is all washed away, the gold settling to the bottom; then, he turns the pipe against the bank again to cave down more. In this manner they work a "deep cut" into the hill, until the perpendicular "face" of the bank is seventy-five or a hundred feet high. Then operations become dangerous, and it is in such places that we hear of so many accidents, "killed by the caving of a bank." The piper stands as far from the base as the projectile of the hose will allow, but notwithstrnding his watchfulness and precaution, he is sometimes injured by falling rocks, or buried under a "cave."

THANKS.—Our usual thanks are tendered to Mr. J. B. CONDON, for the prompt delivery of California exchanges.

LUMBER! LUMBER!!

New Steam Saw Mill!

THIS MILL is located upon the head of the North Fork of the Chouchillia, eight miles from Mariposa, and is surrounded by the best timbered country between the Merced and San Joaquin Rivers.

LUMBER

Of all dimensions Sawed to order, out of the best of Sugar Pine Timber, much of which is entirely clear and of superior quality.

A large stock of all kinds of Lumber kept constantly on hand at their Lumber Yard, which will be sold low for Cash, or delivered in any accessible part of the Country.

Those wanting large lots of lumber, are particularly requested to examine their facilities for furnishing it, of superior quality at a low price.

Road to the Mill.

A ROAD has been recently built from Mariposa, by the way of Mormon Bar to their Mill, over which a load may be drawn as large as can be taken from Mariposa to any point below.

TEAMSTERS are informed that in the immediate vicinity of the Mill is excellent Grass, and Hay and Barley may be obtained at the Storehouse of the company. A share of patronage is solicited.

☞ The undersigned have leased the above Mill, and are prepared to execute orders of every description. And from our practical experience in manufacturing Lumber, can guarantee satisfaction, and hope to receive a share of patronage.

We have a Lumber Yard in Mariposa, at which may be found all varieties of lumber. One of the proprietors will be in constant attendance to wait upon customers, and receive orders to forward to the Mill. WHITE & HATCH.

STOCKTON

CITY MILLS.

Main St., West end—Established 1850.

THE undersigned, confident from their long experience in the Milling business, of their ability to manufacture the best description of FLOUR, would invite the attention of parties wishing to purchase, to the established reputation their brand has acquired in the Southern Mines, and wherever introduced, for its purity and superior quality.

They would take this occasion to inform their friends and the public, that having added to the premises, a Fire proof Brick Store-House, 40x80 feet, capable of storing 600 tons grain—improved and perfected the machinery of the Mills, their increased conveniences enable them to confidently guarantee every sack of Flour branded "Stockton City Mills."

To Merchants and Farmers, they would add, that they continue to pay particular attention to grinding all kinds of grain. In conclusion, they would respectfully refer all those unacquainted with the Mills, to the principal Merchants of Stockton and the Southern Mines. SHERRY & CO.

feb20. N. COHN & CO.

SanFrancisco Advertisements.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

GRAND MEDICAL & SURGICAL INSTITUTE.

Sacramento Street, below Montgomery,

Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

Established for the Permanent Cure of all Private and Chronic Diseases, and the suppression of quackery.

Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, and late Lecturer on diseases of Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children has opened his institute for the cure of all forms of private diseases, such as syphilis, gonorrhœa, nocturnal emissions, and all the consequences of self abuse. In the first stages of syphilitic or gonorhœal diseases, he guarantees a cure in a few days, without inconvenience to the patient or hindrance to his business. When a patient, by neglect or improper treatment, has developed the symptoms of secondary syphilis, such as bubos, or painful swellings of the groins, or ulcers in the throat or nose, which if not checked, destroy the soft parts and cause the bones to mortify, separate and come away, leaving the sufferer heidous to behold; or when splotches and pimples break out upon the skin, or when he has painful swellings upon the bones, or when his constitution is injured so as to predispose to consumption or constitutional disease, the Doctor guarantees a cure or asks no compensation.

In rheumatism, chronic or acute, in dysentery or diarrhœa, he has safe and effectual remedies. For the treatment of the consequences of self-abuse, such as nocturnal emissions, nervousness, timidity, headache, pains in the back and limbs, with general weakness, loss of appetite, loss of memory, injury to the sight, restlessness, confusion of ideas, dislike for society, and a feeling of weariness of life, with the nervous system so exciteable that slight noises shock or startle the patient, making his existence miserable. For the above maladies the Doctor will guarantee a cure or ask no compensation. He can be consulted free of charge, and invites all to call, as it will cost them nothing, and may be much to their advantage.

A Tribute to Merited Worth.

☞ A TESTIMONIAL RICHLY MERITED.—The ingratitude of man to his fellow man is so often met with in life, that testimonials, prompted by the finer feelings of the heart, are oasis in the life of those who sacrifice their best days in philanthropic devotion to the alleviation of the ills of frail mortality. Empiricism floods the columns of our press with fraudulent and fictitious letters; singing peans to the worth of their own egotistical charlatanism. Below we append a letter from a worthy man, who, a brief period since, seemed destined to "shuffle off this mortal coil;" who looked forward to his dissolution with that pleasure which only those weighed down by the heavy hand of disease can. Contrary to hope, the ability of a skillful physician restored him to his former health. Relieved from his terrible situation, and impelled by gratitude, he makes known his case and remedial agent, and his statement is authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperiously command its publicity; and it is given more to warn the unwary than to sound the praises of a physician of whom scores of like cases can be cited:

CERTIFICATE.

The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practice of uncontrollable passion in youth; depressed in body and mind; unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the daily avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease of trifling importance—but alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances months, of their treatment, I found to my unutterable horror, that instead of relief, the symptoms became more alarming in their torture, and being told by those who professed being principally confined to the brain, the consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by this result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, my ideas collected; the constant pain in my back and groins; the weakness of my limbs; the nervous prostration of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement; the misanthropy and evil forebodings; the self-distrust and want of confidence in others; the incapability to study, and want of resolution; the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared; and in fact, in two months after having consulted the Doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand.

With a view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured, by my own experience, that under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected. B. F. FILLMORE.

State of California, County of San Francisco. Subscribed and sworn before me, this 17th day of April, 1856. (Signed) JOHN MIDDLETON, [L. S.]
Notary Public.

A CARD.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public, a case which deserves a high commendation, not only as an act of self-justice, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly and from some cause unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expense consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the failures which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (as I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of a physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet despised the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render me assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the misery of my existence. While in this state, and having previous to my affliction, tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him my circumstances, and my inability to reward him for all his services, regardless of which, however, he at once undertook the case, and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and to all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.

[L. S.] Meyer Yablonsky.

State of California, County of San Francisco.—Subscriped and sworn before me, this 1st day of August, 1856. Gilbert A. Grant, [L. S.] Notary Public.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

GREAT BLESSING TO MANKIND!—Innocent but potent! Dr. L. J. Czapkay's Prophilacticum, (self-disinfecting agent,) a sure preventive against gonorrhœal and syphilitic diseases, and an unsurpassed remedy for venerial, scrofulous, gangrenous and cancerous ulcers, fœtid discharges from the vagina, uterus and urethra, and all cutaneous eruptions and diseases. As innoculation is a preventive against small-pox, so is Dr. L. J. Czapkay's Prophilacticum a preventive against syphilitic and gonorrhœal disease. Although harmless in itself, it possesses the power of chemically destroying the syphilitic virus, and thereby saving thousands from being infected by the most loathsome of all diseases. Let no young man who appreciates health be without Dr. Czapkay's Prophilacticum. It is in very convenient packages, and will be found convenient to use, being used as a soap. Price $5. For sale at Dr. Czapkay's Private Medical and Surgical Institute, Sacramento Street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

All orders must be addressed to L. J. Czapkay, M. D., San Francisco, California.

Spermatorrhœa.

OR local weakness, nervous debility, low spirits, lassitude, weakness of the limbs or back, indisposition and incapability for labor and study, dullness of apprehension, loss of memory, aversion to society, love of solitude, timidity, self-distrust, dizziness, headache, involuntary discharges, pains in the side, affections of the eyes, pimples on the face sexual and other infirmities in man, are cured without fail by the justly celebrated physician and surgeon, L. J. Czapkay. His method of curing diseases is new, (unknown to others,) and hence the great success. All consultations, (by letter or otherwise) free. Address L. J. Czapkay, M. D., San Francisco, California.
